

Keeping Lease Transactions Fast, Compliant, and Protected

Fraud, forgery, and business impersonation are rising threats in equipment leasing—especially as workflows go remote. Proof helps secure every transaction with digital-first tools that speed up deals, reduce risk, and build identity-backed trust from application to delivery.

Tackling Your Key Fraud Concerns

Fraud prevention in leasing isn't just a compliance box—it's a bottom-line issue. Whether you're navigating fake EINs or forged POAs, Proof helps stop fraud before assets go out the door.

Synthetic business identities

Forged POAs

False bank statements

Signer impersonation

Redefining Trust in Every Lease

You've built a reputation on fast closings, secure transactions, and industry know-how. With Proof, you bring that same confidence to digital workflows—without sacrificing control, compliance, or speed.

Sign

Enable compliant eSigning for lease documents like powers of attorney, bills of sale, and lien releases. Proof lets you execute high-value agreements quickly from any device—no printing, shipping, or in-person delays. Documents are securely signed, identity-backed, and ready to move your lease forward.

NotarizeSM

Use Proof's Remote Online Notarization (RON) to complete notarized documents securely and without friction. From powers of attorney to lien releases, our on-demand notary network helps you close deals faster with a fully compliant, auditable, and scalable workflow designed for leasing.

Identify

Verify signer and business identity at every step—during applications, at signing, and even at delivery. Proof uses advanced identity verification, liveness checks, and fraud detection to ensure each transaction is tied to a real, authorized party. It's identity assurance built for high-value leasing.

People Remain the Backbone of Online Trust

Machine learning and artificial intelligence play their roles, but people remain the backbone of online trust. That's why Proof provides access to the largest network of trusted professionals, ensuring every transaction is handled reliably and securely. With Proof, you'll be primed to lead the charge against fraud.
